

AMAT: Jamaica Barstool

Dimensions: Height 770mm, Width 550mm, Depth 550 mm

Designer: Pepe Cortez

The Jamaica Barstool by Amat of Spain was designed by world reknown designer Pepe Cortez. The Jamaica's unique, beautiful style has captured the hearts of many, and helped it to claim awards from the ADG-FAD (Association of Art Directors, Graphic Designers, Illustrator and Photographers from the Development of Decorative Arts) in 1991, and Design-Auswahl Stuttgart 1994. The stool consists of a polished chrome frame with a swivel seat in either solid varnished European Beech timber or cast aluminium, polished and anodised.

Frame dimensions can be adjusted to suit both bar and kitchen bench heights.
